

News Release – 3 Feb 2014

Come to eightfoxavenue Indoor Sports Centre (formerly Coniston Indoor Sports Centre) and enjoy BUBBLE SOCCER – the AMAZING NEW sport craze that's sweeping the world!

And now it's HERE in the Illawarra! Under new management, eightfoxavenue Indoor Sports Centre is located... wait for it...

at 8 Fox Avenue, Wollongong! Not too hard to remember!

And what is BUBBLE SOCCER?

Okay, so there are 2 teams (at least 4 in each team, but the more the merrier. :o)

You wear massive plastic bubbles, and kick, bounce and roll the ball (and yourselves) into the other team's goal.

- Awesome fun to play and hilarious to watch!
- The latest craze that's sweeping the world!
- No rules!
- Affordable!
- MUST TRY EXPERIENCE!

Do it once and you'll want to come back again and again!

Warning! You will laugh so hard you may forget about the score, and may not care if your team wins! eightfoxavenue Indoor Sports Centre is excited to bring BUBBLE SOCCER to the Illawarra.

BUBBLE SOCCER is great for birthday parties, corporate events, school sport, bucks' nights and any other excuse or occasion you can think of.

How do you get into your own BUBBLE?

- Hire BUBBLE SOCCER for an hour and as many people can play in that hour as you like.
- It's $30 per person per hour (minimum cost $240) up to a maximum of $375 per hour.
- Play as many 5 minute games in that hour as you can manage.

3000 or so people who were at the Wollongong Entertainment Centre on Australia Day have already witnessed the excitement that bubble soccer has to offer during the Wollongong Hawks half time entertainment. For those who missed it – you can see it at www.eightfoxavenue.com.au
